"Every cloud has a silver lining" means that every difficulty or setback that causes harm also contains potential for a beneficial outcome. By searching for any positive effects of any difficulty or confusing circumstance, we can begin to feel more inner peace in response to the situation, thus regaining our ability to solve it if we can or accept it if we can't.

In this experiential workshop, we will explore ways to be successful in all our relationships by finding new ways to look at things. As we share our journeys, we connect, celebrate, and discover ways to find our silver lining in any situation. Join us and spend time enjoying the company of women exploring opportunities to enhance our lives.
